Yulia Mun was born in Novosibirsk, Russia, in 1991 and took up the flute at the age of seven. She became a pupil at The Purcell School in September 2006 with a scholarship under the Government's Music and Dance Scheme. In September this year she commenced studies at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama.

A violinist with a distinguished career, Charles Sewart has been Head of Strings at the Purcell School since 2007. Prior to accepting this position he was with the Chilingirian Quartet, touring internationally, performing at some of the world's most prestigious festivals and venues and collaborating with many of the finest performers and composers.
